For quite sometime I am not adding up any update on Ancient History category, so this is it a model of Ancient Japanese Dogu. Dogu simply means a “clay figure” in Japanese, thanks to my Facebook friend from Japan Iro Dorry who also helped me provided the Dogu in Japanese writing. This “Dogu” is some say a representation of a spirit, others say it was an Idol figure of a woman that symbolized a fertility which also found in other places in the world including Europe. Dogu came in many shape, but this one is with a distinct style, It is the goggle detail that made this style unique. Because the strange shape that was quite beyond its era, some Ancient Alien Theorist believe it was a depiction of an Ancient alien who visited Japan in distance past as seen on TV program on History Channel. That show is one of my favorite tv show :). This template contains 3 pages of patterns including a display stand.
